

From the community: Brushwood Center Holiday Open House & Carol Sing

"Sleigh Ride" by Edward L. Ryerson, 1958. (Posted by Ifruhauff, Community Contributor)

By Community Contributor Ifruhauff

DECEMBER 2, 2016, 10:59 AM

RIVERWOODS, IL - Brushwood Center is decking the halls, celebrating the season with its 2nd Annual Holiday Open House and Carol Sing on Saturday, December 10th, 4-7pm. Enjoy the holiday season the old-fashioned way with the Brushwood family as they harken back to a simpler time at historic Brushwood Center located in the Ryerson Woods Forest Preserve. This free event will include holiday crafts and treats, caroling, and a luminary nature walk in beautiful Ryerson Woods. Brushwood Center's latest art exhibit, Foliage and Feathers, will be on display along with historic Brushwood photographs that open a fascinating window into local history.

Brushwood Center Holiday Open House and Carol Sing is a free event, but donations are appreciated! Registration is recommended at BrushwoodCenter.org or by calling 847-968-3308.

About Brushwood Center at Ryerson Woods

Brushwood Center at Ryerson Woods is a non-profit that promotes the importance of nature for nurturing personal and community wellbeing, cultivating creativity, and inspiring learning.

Contact

To learn more about Brushwood Center programs and events contact Jackie Rockwell by phone at 847-968-3343, by email at jrockwell@brushwoodcenter.org, or visit BrushwoodCenter.Org. Brushwood Center at Ryerson Woods is located at 21850 N. Riverwoods Rd., Riverwoods, IL 60015.

This item was posted by a community contributor. To read more about community contributors, click here.

Copyright © 2017, Chicago Tribune